Policies for Guests Attending ECS Dances

- ECS students may invite guests to ECS dances if they adhere to the following guidelines 1) Guest students must be enrolled in grades 9-12; middle school students are not eligible for upper school dances. 2) First year college students are only eligible with special permission from Head of US, decided on a case by case basis for Prom only. 3) Guests from other schools may only be of the opposite sex.
- Students and guests may be required to pass a professionally administered breathalyzer test at any of these times:
1) in order to be admitted to the dance. 2) at any time during the dance. 3) upon exiting the dance.
- Adults administering the breathalyzer test, will be required to report to the school administration the names of any students or guests who fail the breathalyzer test or who commit any other major infraction will be accountable to the ECS Discipline Policy.
- Students and guests may not leave the dance and return later. This includes going to their car unescorted by a chaperone.
- Dancing will be supervised by ECS faculty chaperones. Inappropriate dancing is not allowed at ECS dances. Students or guests who violate this policy may be suspended from the dance floor and ineligible to attend future ECS dances.
- Alcohol and tobacco/vaping products are not allowed on premises.
- ECS reserves the right to deny admittance to the dance.
